

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

January 23, 2009

Dear Kelly:

Thank you for your thoughtful letter and for the Bible you so generously sent to me. Michelle and I are grateful for your kindness, and I deeply appreciate the spirit in which this gift was given.

I also want to thank you for introducing me to www.the-holy-bible.com. I am encouraged by your efforts to use technology to make the Gospel more accessible to people wherever they may be. At its best, technology can help bring people together and provide new ways for us to reflect upon the timeless lessons of faith.

Throughout our history, Americans have turned to The Holy Bible for wisdom, comfort, and strength. I am grateful for your gracious gift, and for the thoughtfulness you have shown in sending this Bible to me.

Michelle joins me in sending our warmest regards and best wishes.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Barack Obama', with a stylized, cursive script.

Barack Obama